Australasian Intellectual Property Academics Conference 2012

Thursday 12 July

Adelaide Law Library Drinks Reception for Professor W.R. Cornish
5.30pm-6.30pm

Adelaide Law School Moot Court (free event)

Friday 13 July

Opening Session
9.15am-10.30am

Professor Cornish
David Brennan

Morning Tea
10.30am-11.00am

Session 2: Trade Marks, Patents and Counterfeit Goods
11.00am-12.30pm

Amanda Scardamaglia
Swinburne University of Technology
‘The Colonial Trade Mark Regime: Opening up the Australian Archives on Colonial Trade Mark Registrations’

Chris Dent
University of Melbourne
‘Empirical Evidence of the Patenting of Pharmaceutical Innovations’

Michael Blakeney
University of Western Australia
‘Weapons of Mass Deception? The role of terrorists in counterfeiting and piracy’

Lunch
12.30pm-1.30pm
Session 3: Copyright
1.30pm-3.00pm

Graham Greenleaf and Catherine Bond
University of New South Wales
‘Public rights in copyright: What makes up the public domain?’

Elizabeth Adeney
Deakin University
‘Fair dealing for the purposes of quotation: What is a quotation exception and should Australia have one?’

David Lindsay
Monash University
‘What does iiNet mean and what happens now?’

Afternoon Tea
3.00pm-3.30pm

Session 4: New Developments
3.30pm-5.00pm

Nicolas Suzor
Queensland University of Technology
‘Access, progress, and fairness: rethinking exclusivity in copyright’

Kylie Pappalardo
PhD Candidate QUT Law School
‘Understanding the role of users in intermediary liability: theory, rhetoric and practice’

Robert Cunningham
University of Western Australia
‘Should the Public Domain Have Standing? Applying the Ecology Analytical Framework to Intellectual Property Rights’

Conference Dinner
6.00pm-10.00pm

Saturday 14 July

Session 5: ALRC - Copyright Review
9.00am-10.30am

Jill McKeough
University of Technology Sydney
ALRC Commissioner

Morning Tea
10.30am-11.00am

Session 6: Research Directions and Planning Ahead
11.00am-12.00pm