Seminar Series
TEACHING THE LAW

Adelaide Law School -
The heart of our curriculum

In May the first in a series of Teaching the Law seminars focusing on our own curriculum was held. That seminar was an invaluable opportunity to learn more about the Principles, Foundation, Contract and Torts courses. I am now pleased to announce the next seminar in the series! The Course coordinators responsible for courses which are taught in the heart of our Law Degree will make brief presentations about their courses, including the teaching methodology, coverage of legal material and assessment.

Please join us as our colleagues introduce us to:

- the goals, philosophy and approach of their courses;
- the substantive material covered;
- the teaching methodology employed;
- the assessment structure;
- particular skills which are taught and assessed;
- how they coordinate with other courses in the degree;
- any comparative or International elements; and
- particular problems which have been encountered in the course and how they have been dealt with.

The final seminar in this series will be announced soon, and will consider Constitutional Law, Admin, Dispute Resolution and Ethics and Evidence.

Speakers: David Brown (Corporations Law), David Wright (Equity), Ngaire Naffine and David Caruso (Criminal Law and Procedure) and Paul Babie (Property Law)

Venue: Room 314 Ligertwood Building

Date: 2.00-3.30pm Friday 13 August 2010

Sweet treats will be provided!
