Designing a quiz on MyUni - tips and tricks!

As the semester begins, an academic's plans lightly turn to thoughts of assessment …
Did you know that one of the features of MyUni is the capacity to offer online assessments, including multiple choice (self marking!) quizzes? In 2008 Suzanne Le Mire successfully incorporated two 5% MyUni quizzes as assessment components in Legal Ethics. Come and join us as Suzanne gives a demonstration of how to create a quiz, and for a discussion of the mechanics of designing appropriate questions.

Speaker: Suzanne Le Mire

Suzanne Le Mire joined the Law School in 2008 as a lecturer. She previously taught in the School of Commerce at the University of Adelaide and the Faculty of Law at Monash University. Suzanne's research interests include corporate governance, professional ethics and regulation, and regulatory theory. She is currently working on a PhD which examines the role of non-executive directors of large publicly-traded corporations.

In 2008 Suzanne experimented with using online MyUni assessments, and can now share her knowledge!

Venue: Room 423, Ligertwood Building

Date: 1.30-2.30pm Friday 6 March 2009 (just prior to Law School Board). You are welcome to bring your lunch to the seminar.
